PEOPLE

SHOT IN

ORLANDO

The insanity of it. I could write mad trams, try to understand. We drop bombs, we kill innocent people. Yet when our innocents are slaughtered we rush to take the higher moral ground. Our innocents are the victims in a never ending zeal for combat between madmen.

If ever I perceive prejudice in my heart, I feel it for radical extremist Muslims. ~~They~~ Yet, when I go down the argument... they are a warring culture, well, that doesn't satisfy, because America + Americans talk of our higher moral ground, but the facts do not prove that. Ask black people, or Latinos, or Native Americans.

Ask the families of the innocents killed in drone strikes

These drone strikers are led by this African American, beloved president who seems so wise + cool.

This latest episode is yet one more incident in which the innocent are collateral damage in the wars between mad men.

We can stand against this action, but we, as Americans, have not claimed the right to take the moral high ground here.

JUNE 13 2016

In the midst of 'too much' at 29 pieces, an elderly dog who can't walk to go outside, my own aching legs, low energy, today is the day! Today is the day I/we have been working towards — the presentation to the city of the

Gratitude:
My home
Shelter
Food

Piece 24 art. We have learned how to do big,
public art, the vision
is about to begin.

There should be enthusiasm
and joy at this moment.
What's wrong with me?
I feel grief almost, sadness
at the world around us, (no wonder the Tony's bring such joy - a world within a world where art, love,
support, interdependency
lives.)

I feel inadequacy that art really does or can make a difference in
in our consciousness.

Yet: in this life, we stand for something.

Challenged the team to embrace the unifying concept. To be better than what any one of us could be.

Request made to put Bryn down.
I am on the verge of tears.
I must pull out of my ^{today}
let-down, doubts, aches, pains, and shift in to the infinite. Out of my little self and into SELF.

For today's presentation
of piece 24 to the office
of Cultural Affairs,
what is the essential message?

This was done cooperatively with students & adults, diversity with love & inspiration in the room.

We held together as a group, and have helped lift
each other to our highest selves.

I find it ^{fitting} touching & touching & meaningful. ^{very poignant} of what's we're here today - the day after the worst shooting
in U.S. history.

^{a little} humbly & nervously offering a beautiful sculpture to the city that ~~has~~ has its unifying concept
an earnest and strong call for ^{all of us to be an agent of} respect and love.

This piece stands to show
who we are as individuals ^{who we are} and as the city of Dallas.

The house is quiet with Bryn gone. And Rosemary came yesterday to help clean - all the rugs that'd been out to help her Bryn walk, the fun everywhere.

It was very hard - and sad - to see Bryn with bright eyes one moment - and then gone - at my request. She could barely walk, but she was still eating, smiling, barking.

For the first time in six years I sneeze, and there is a fit of barking.

Some pets - when they've gone - have left me with the deepest grief I'd experienced up to that point:

- when Rosie disappeared
- when Charlie was hit by

- a car
- when Alice died
- Betty, Andi, (terrible) still choke up.

- Emma
- Ben
- O'Malley
- Sylvester

Others - I love - but there wasn't that same deep bonding

- Missy
- Woody
- Dodie

- and now Bryn.

She was a sweet girl. A funny girl. A companion.

She also barked incessantly. She'd more than any other animal we've befriended.

My life is editing down.

Piece 24
has a home.

At times, it feels that we have come to the end of our road together, and that it is time to part ways.

Other times, it feels silly to let his samskaras hold that much power.

What would be my requests?

Out of my house: the compulsions

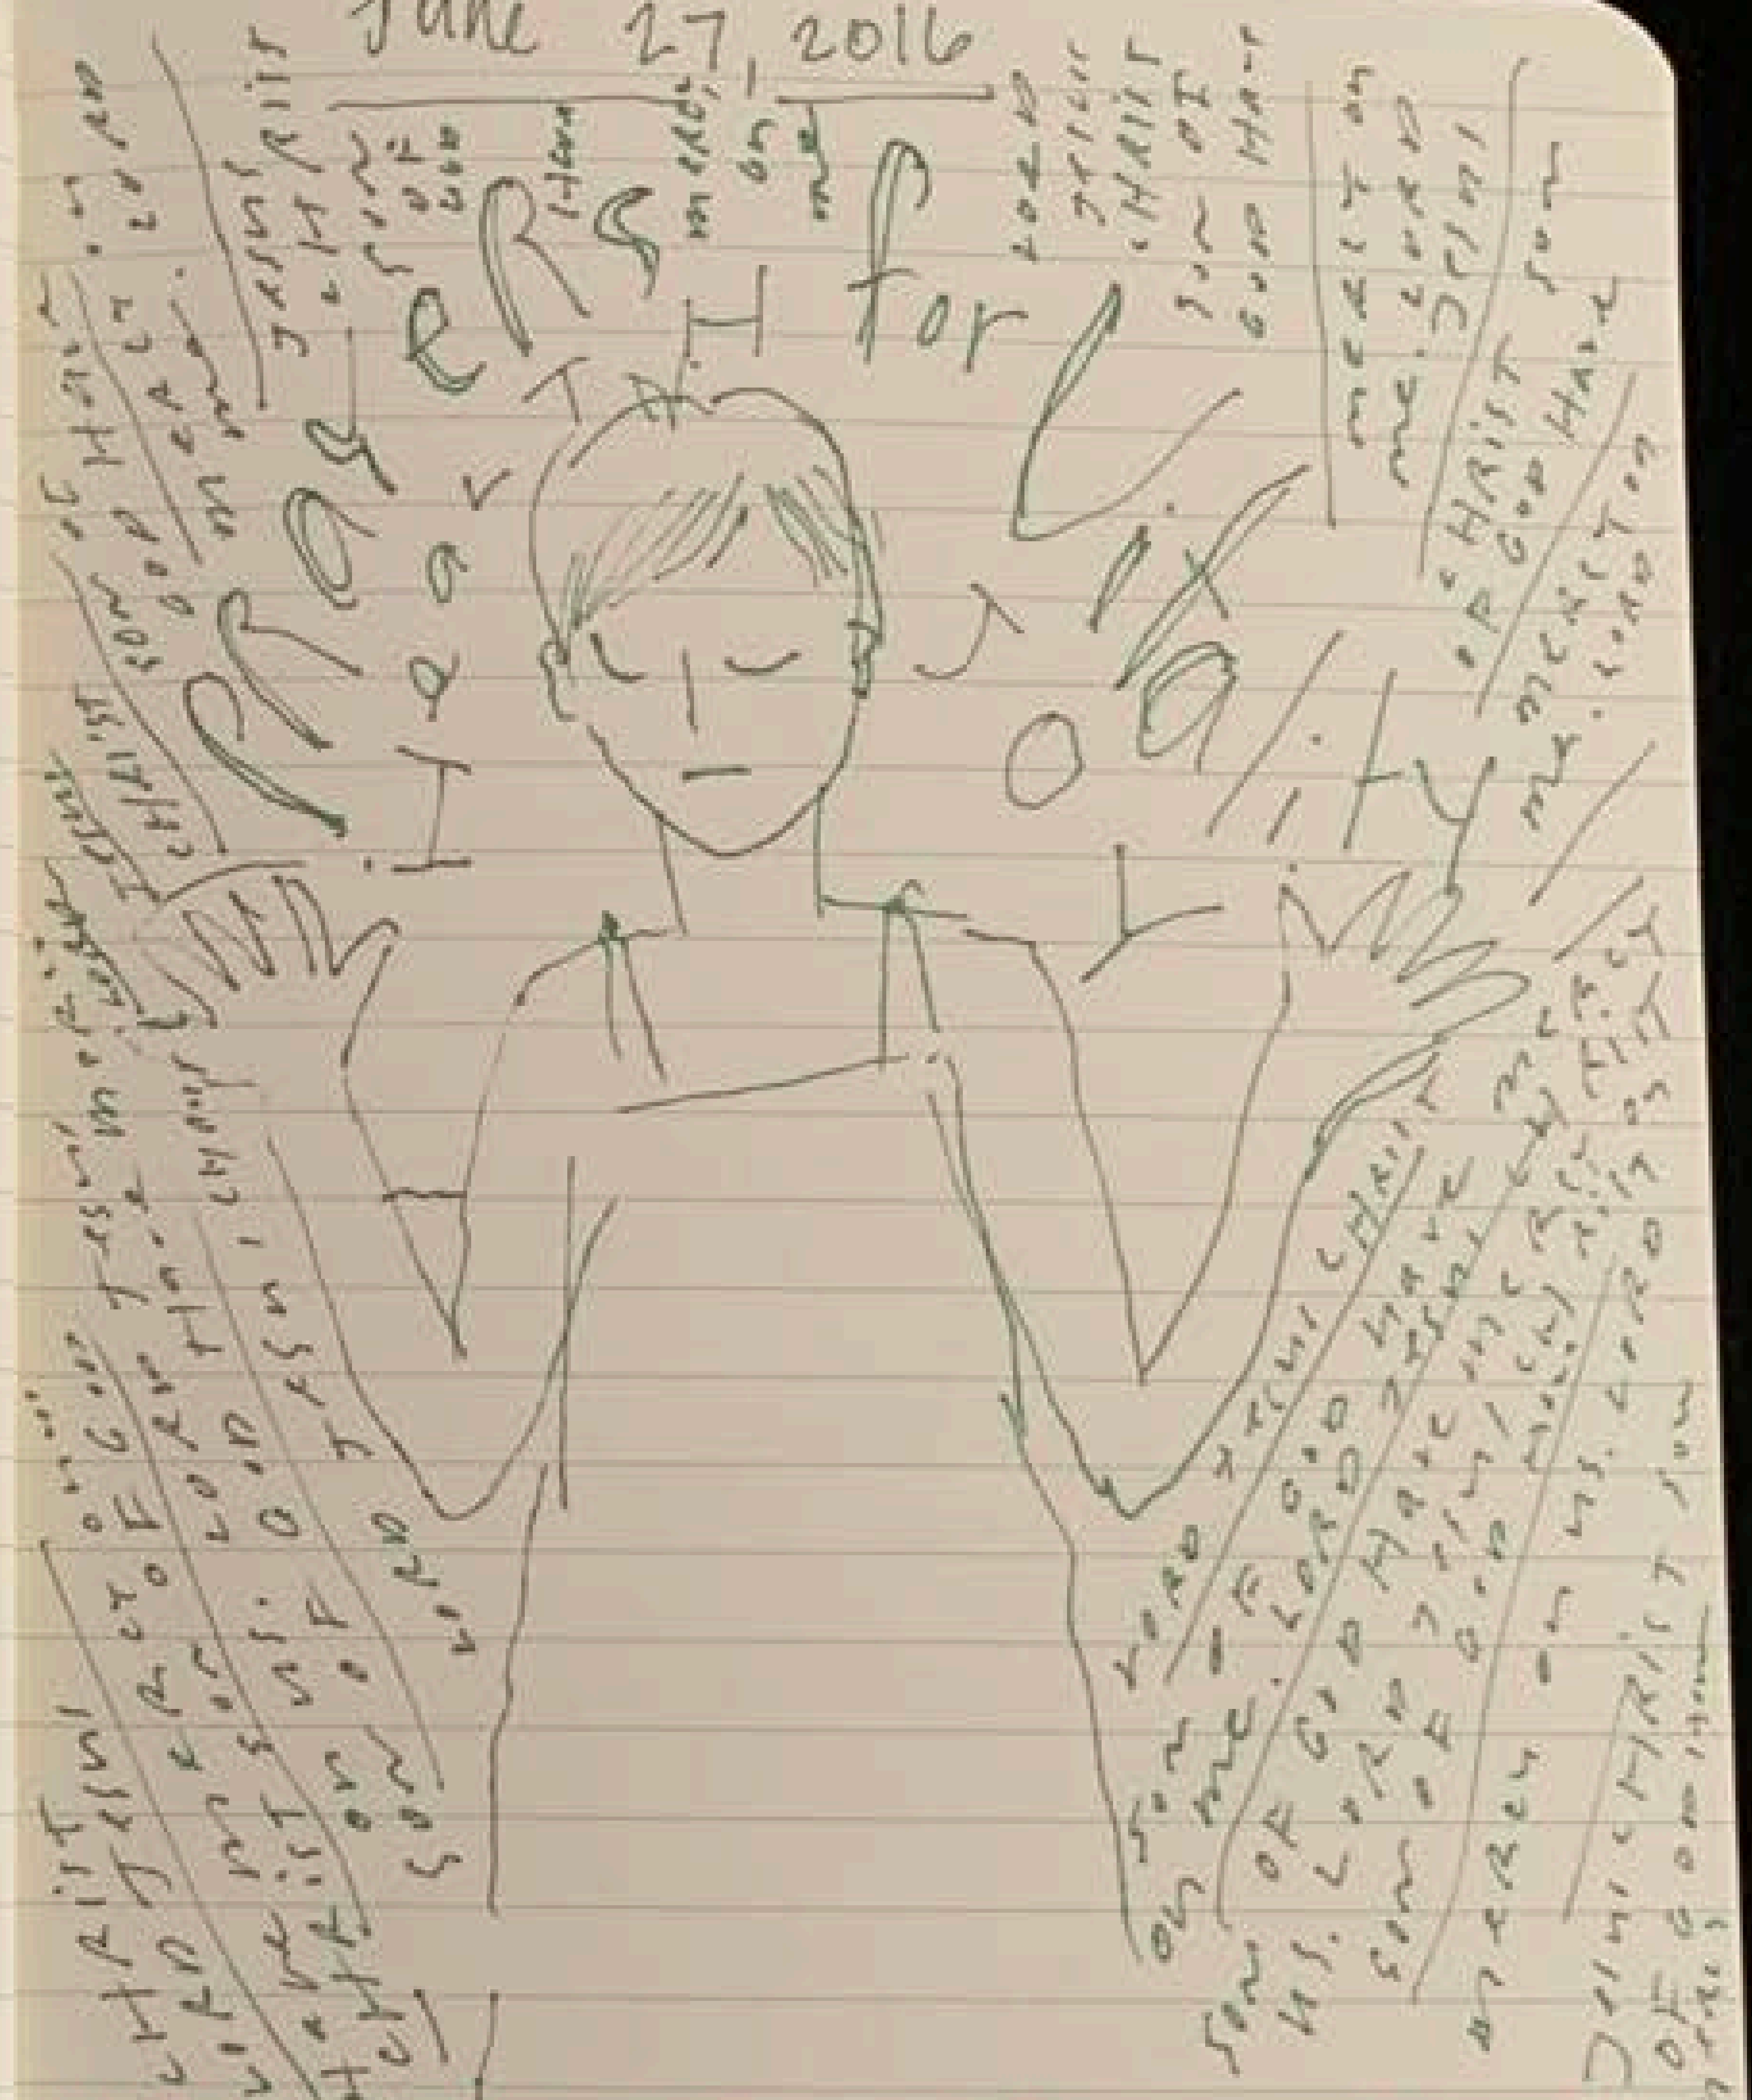

Do something that helps the world.

Do something that helps him grow.

Take initiative on things that need to be done.

Spiritual Growth. Health.

June 27, 2016

The last weeks have held the pressures of acceptance of Piece 24 on public property, the launch of the Respect Pledge City Council Meeting, Cultural Affairs Commission. Now that this is done, and all went well, I have felt like a sleepy bear. I just want to sleep.

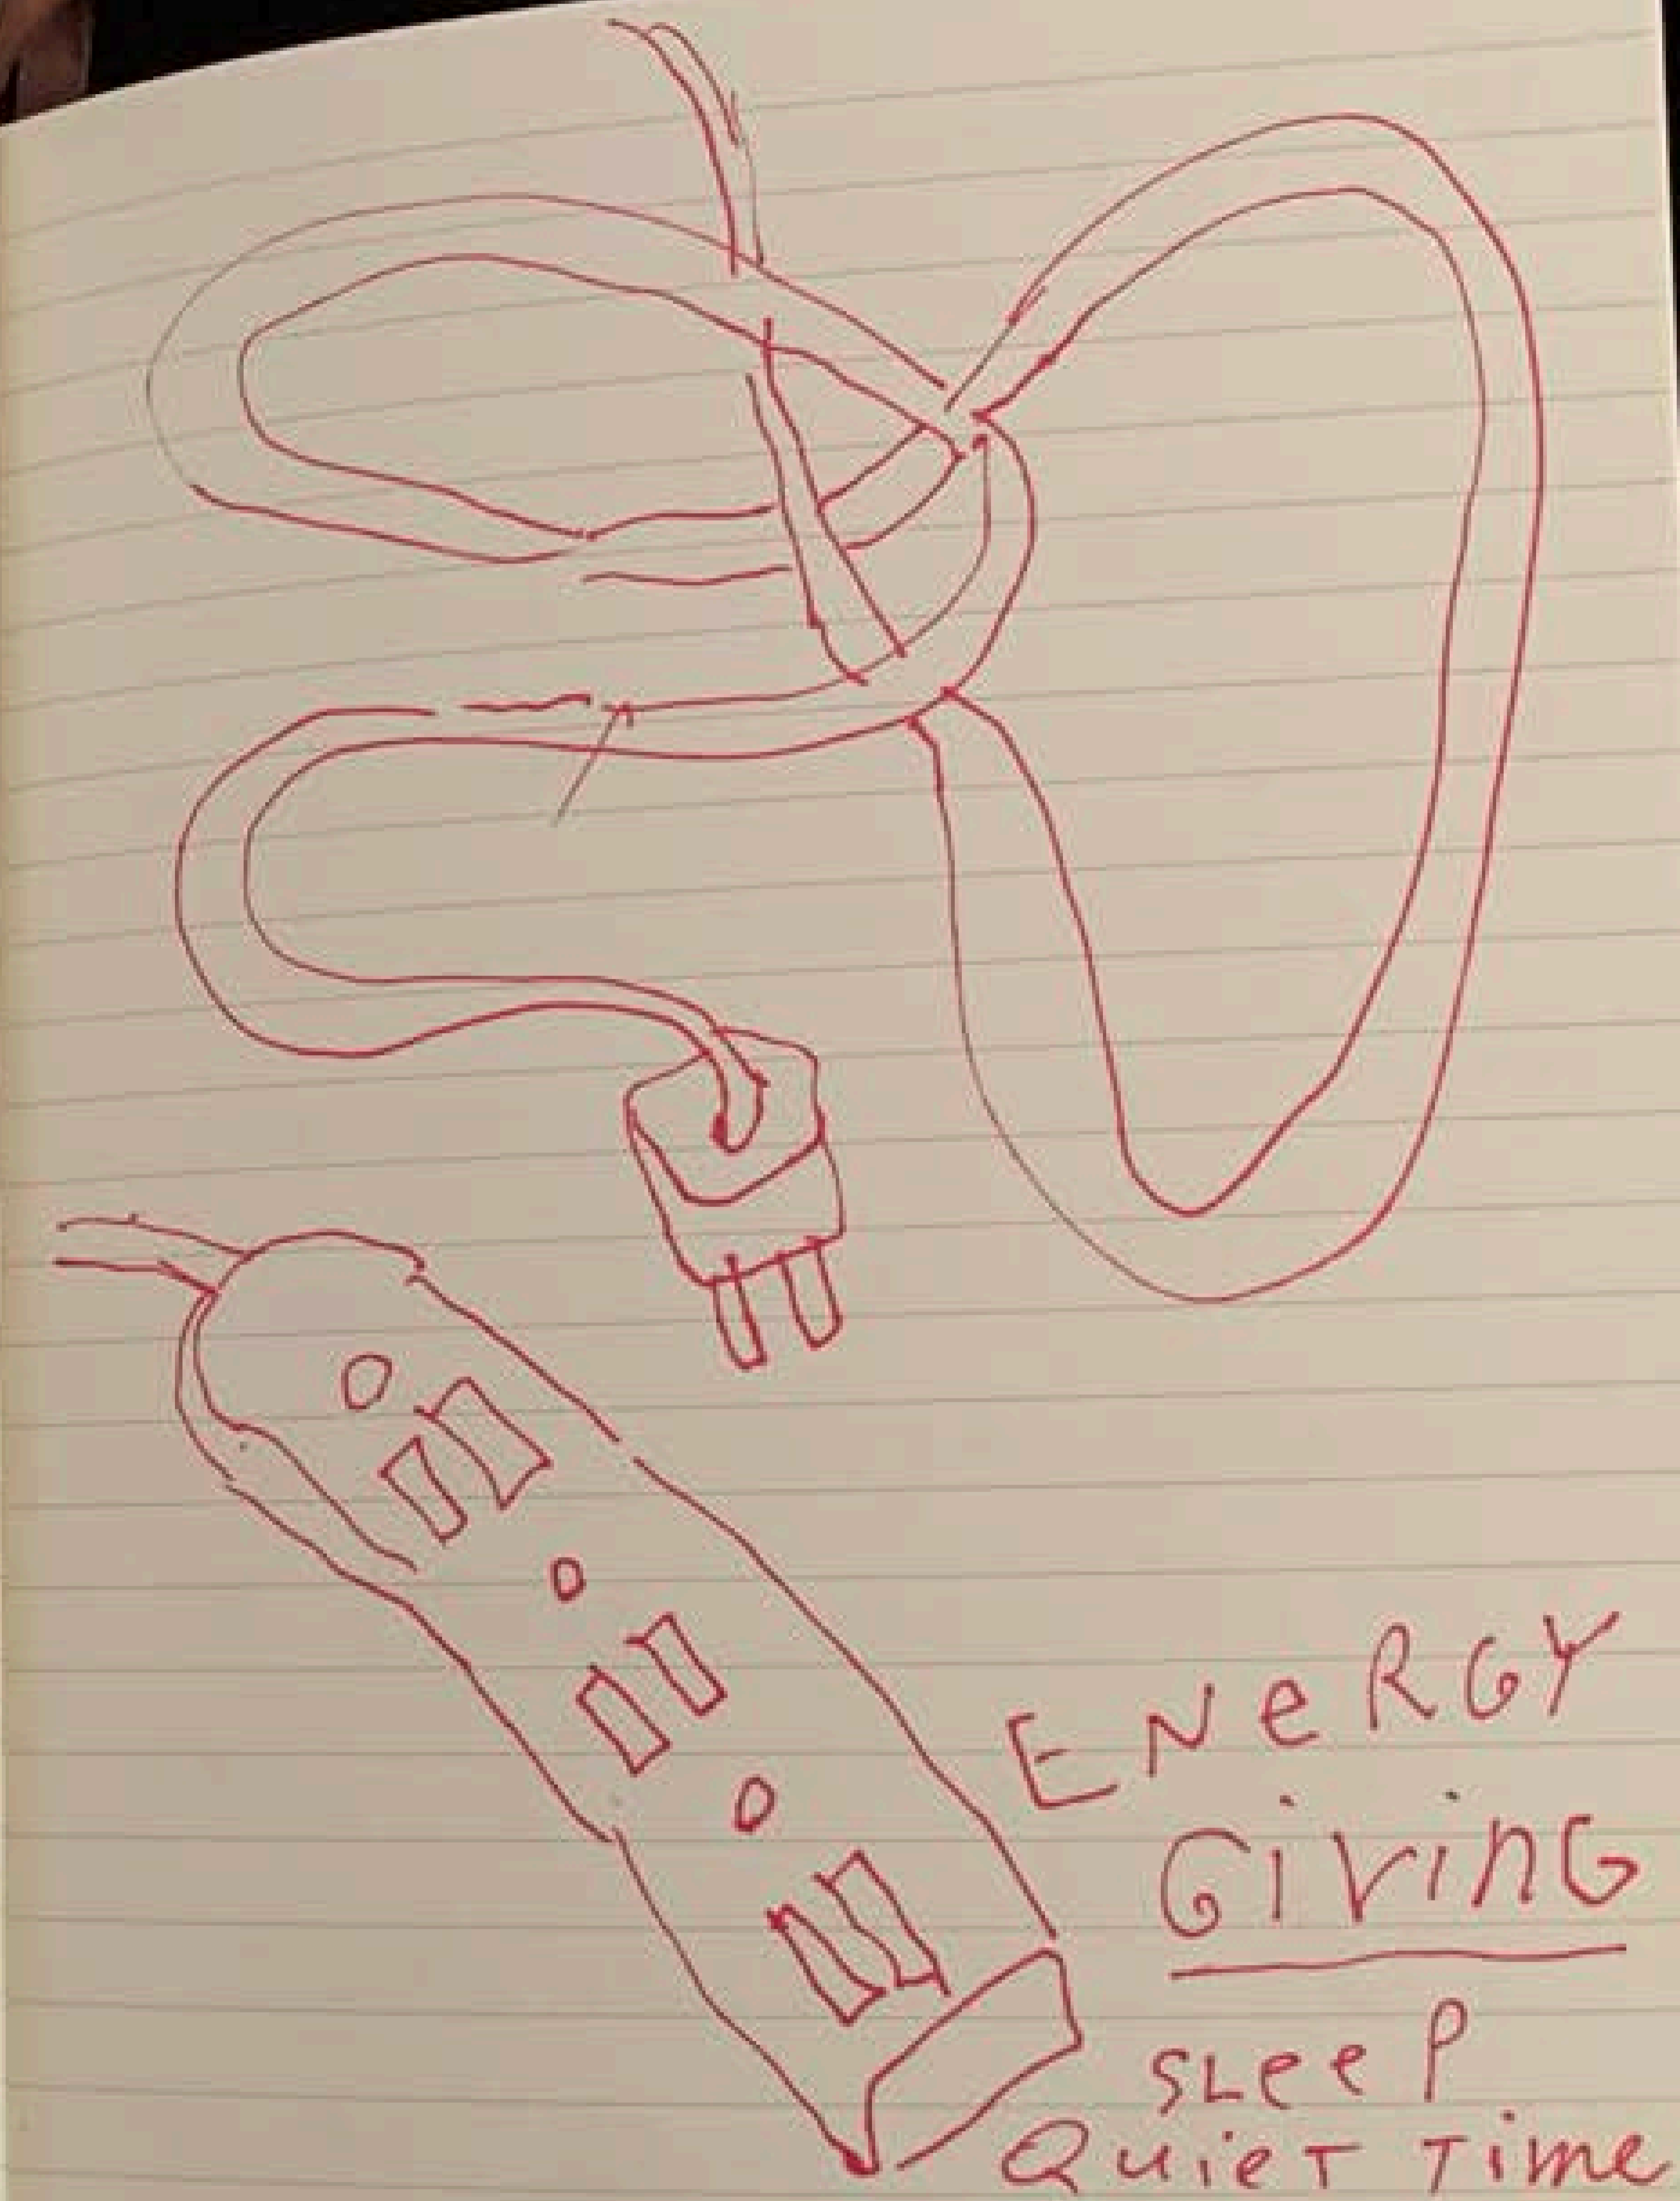

I've been considering what life would be like with Kelly away, what life will be like with Kelly back.

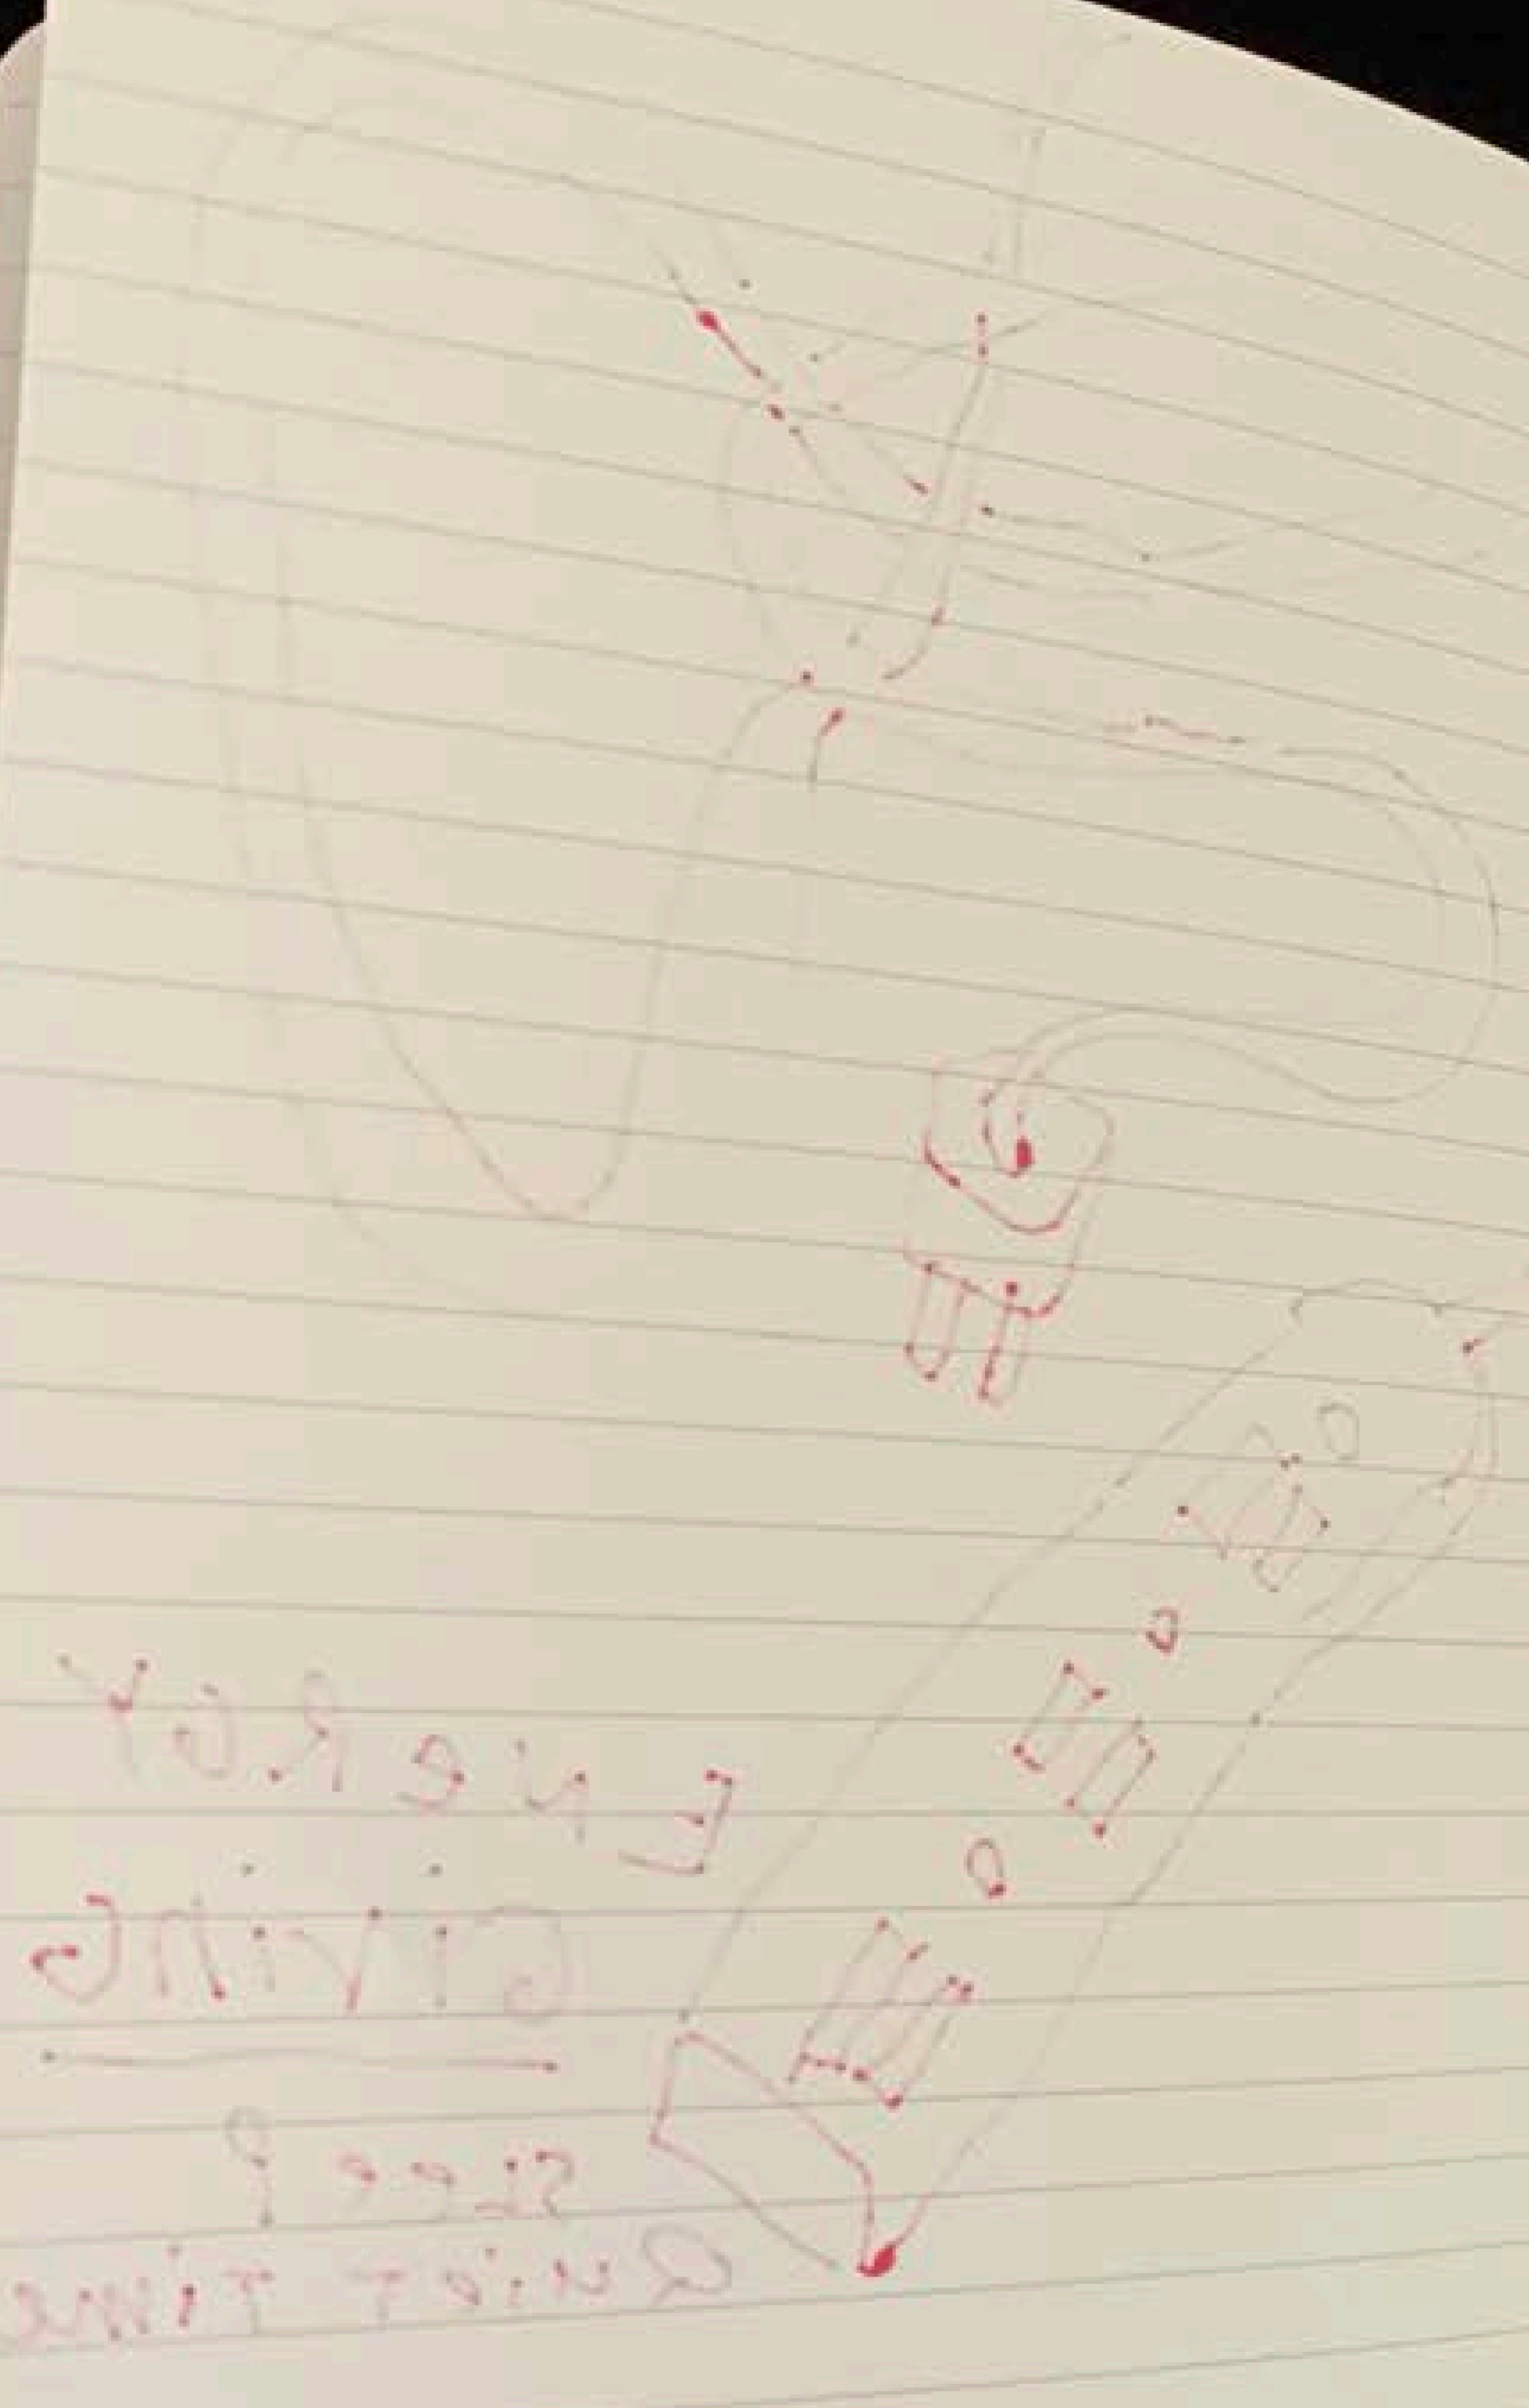

I don't feel that I have pillars of support here ... family ... friends.
~~Need to work~~

[Faint, mostly illegible handwriting on the left page of the notebook, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.]

This sleepiness may be letdown from the tension
of getting the space secured. It may be poor health, extra weight, sadness. I've felt sadness since talking with Hope, since Prince's death, and of course
this most recent shooting
at the gay nightclub.
And Kelly, and the seeming hopelessness of his compulsions.

[Faint, illegible handwritten notes on the left page of the notebook.]

I'm not finding my strength and energy. Any ideas on why/how/where?

You are at an age when many people are disengaging from work, careers. And you are digging in deeper. Opposing urges: rest and fully engage. You have a strong impulse to rest, and a calling to continue. This call is not going to go away. You have to face it.

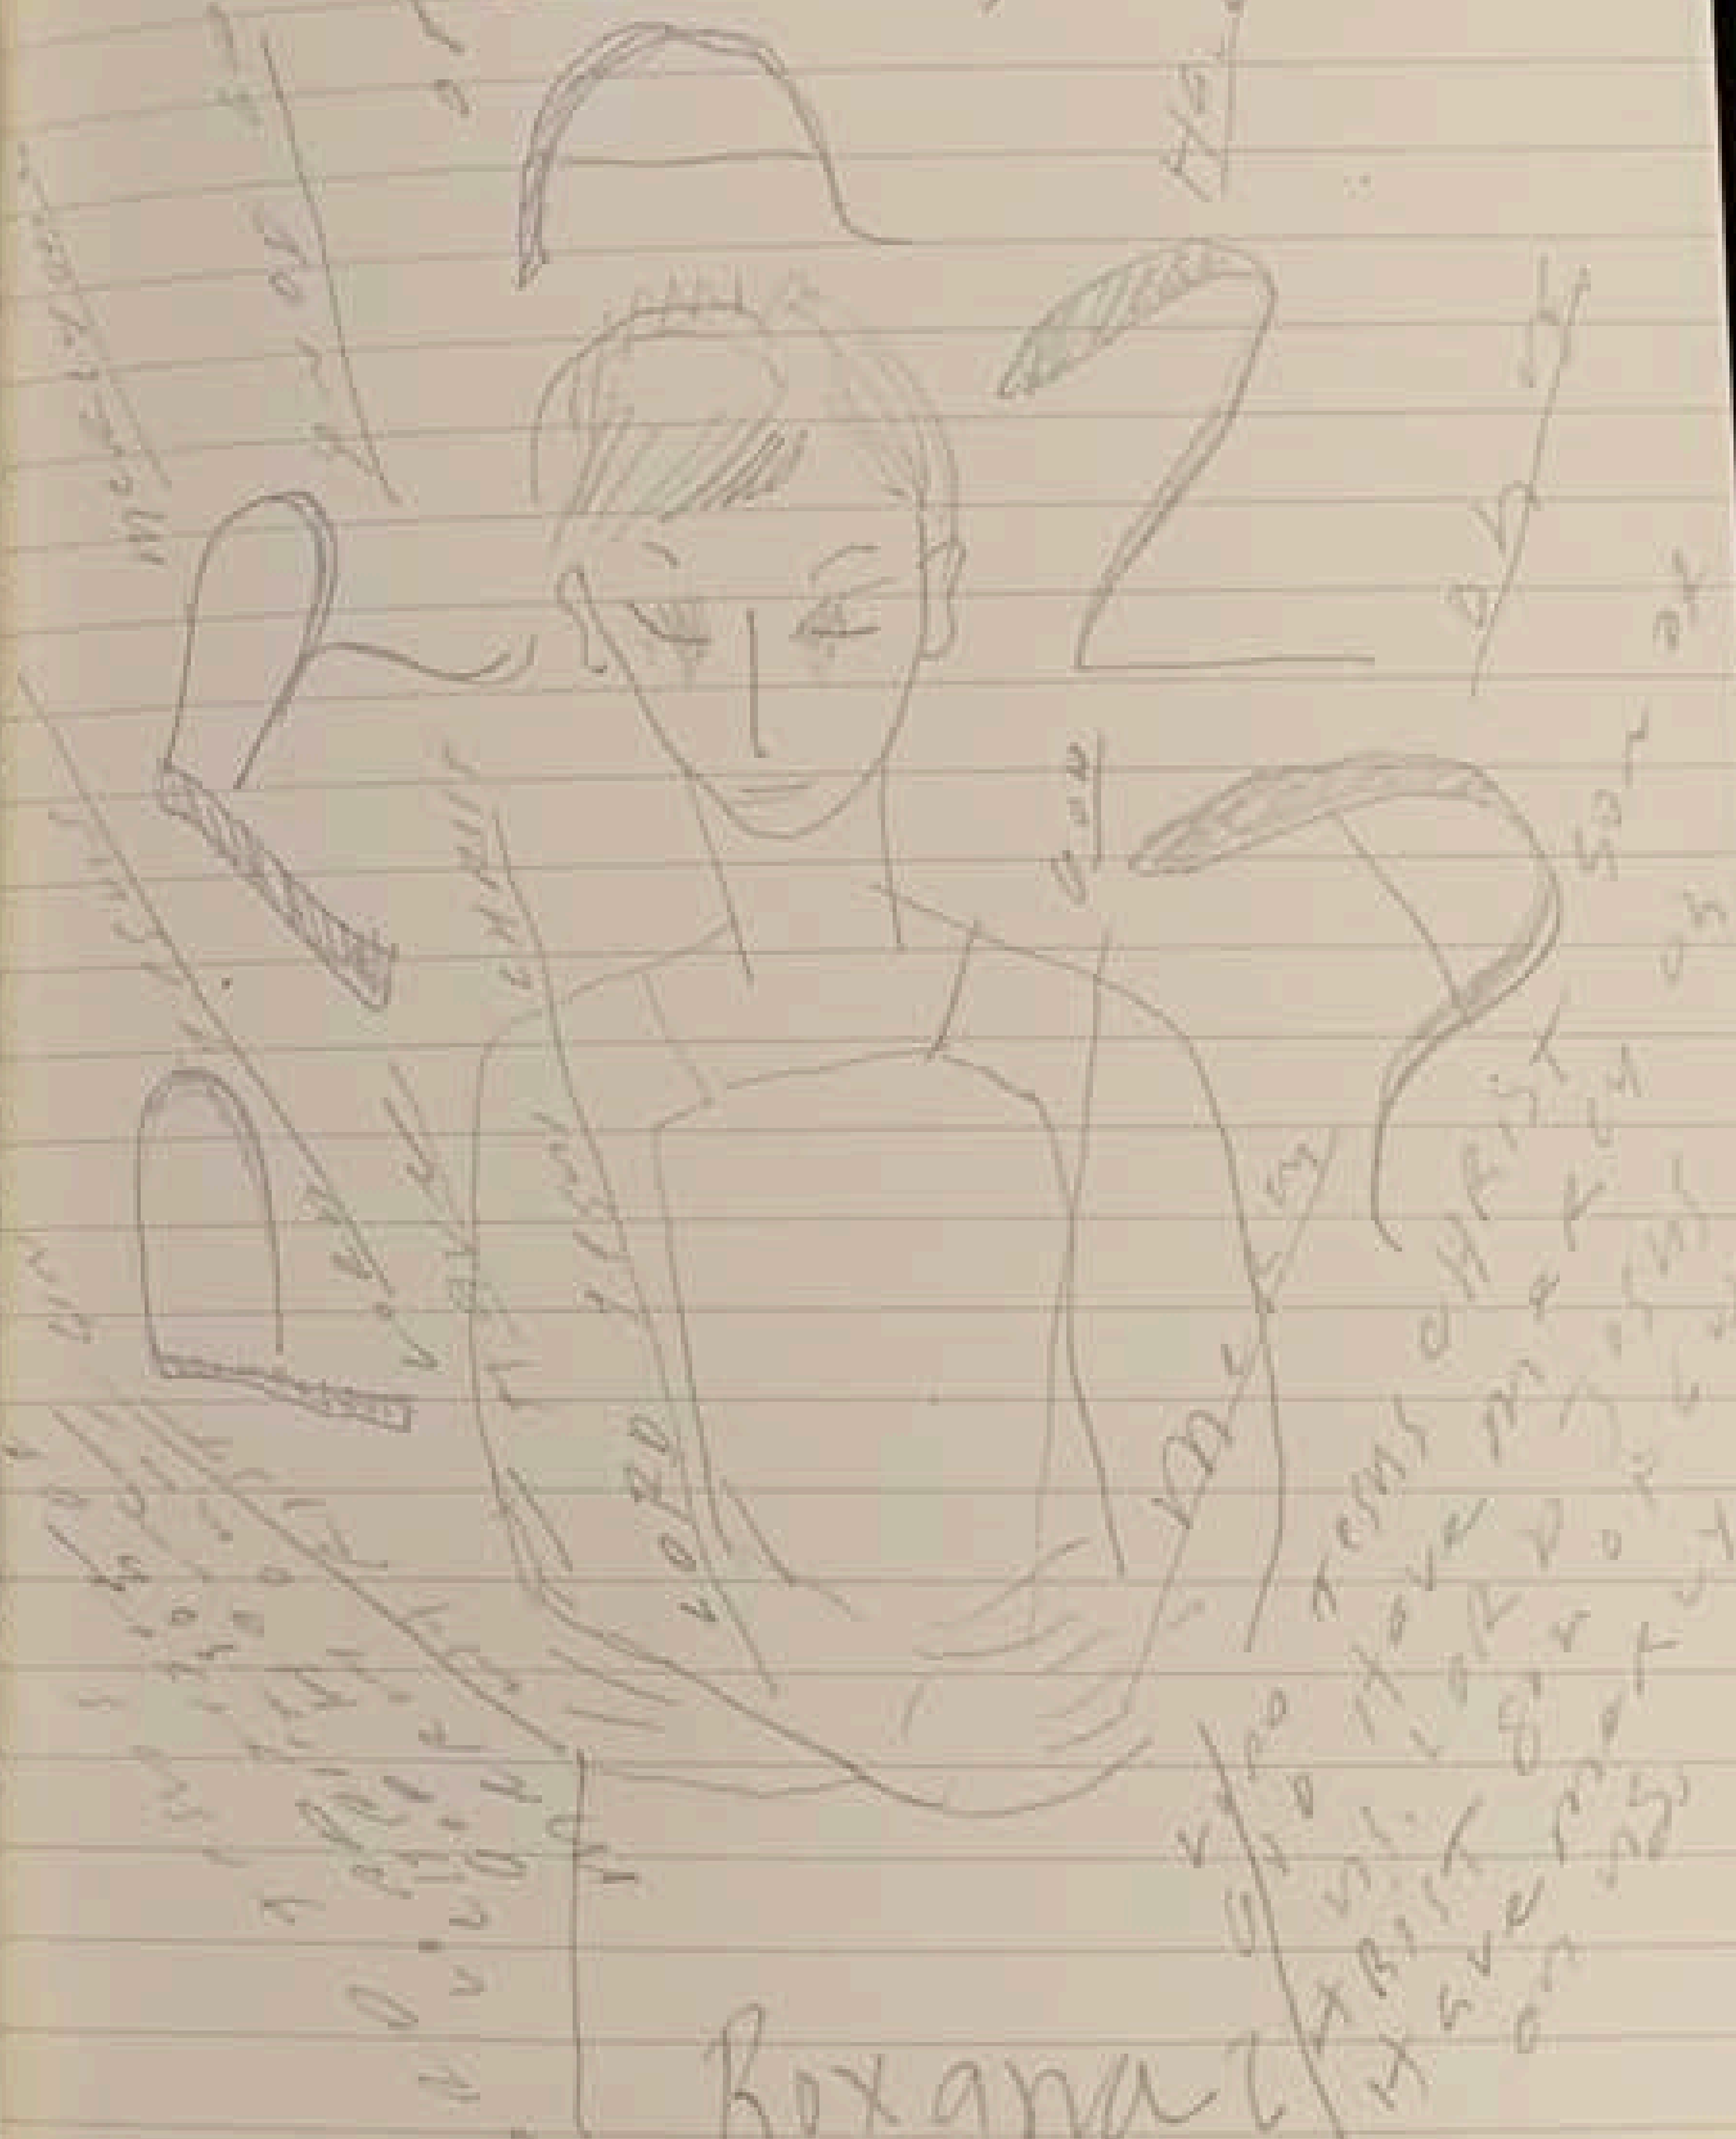

and meet the gift.

6.27.16.

I am feeling sad, pain, low energy. I keep hoping that something will happen to turn this around. Going to a new trainer on Wednesday.

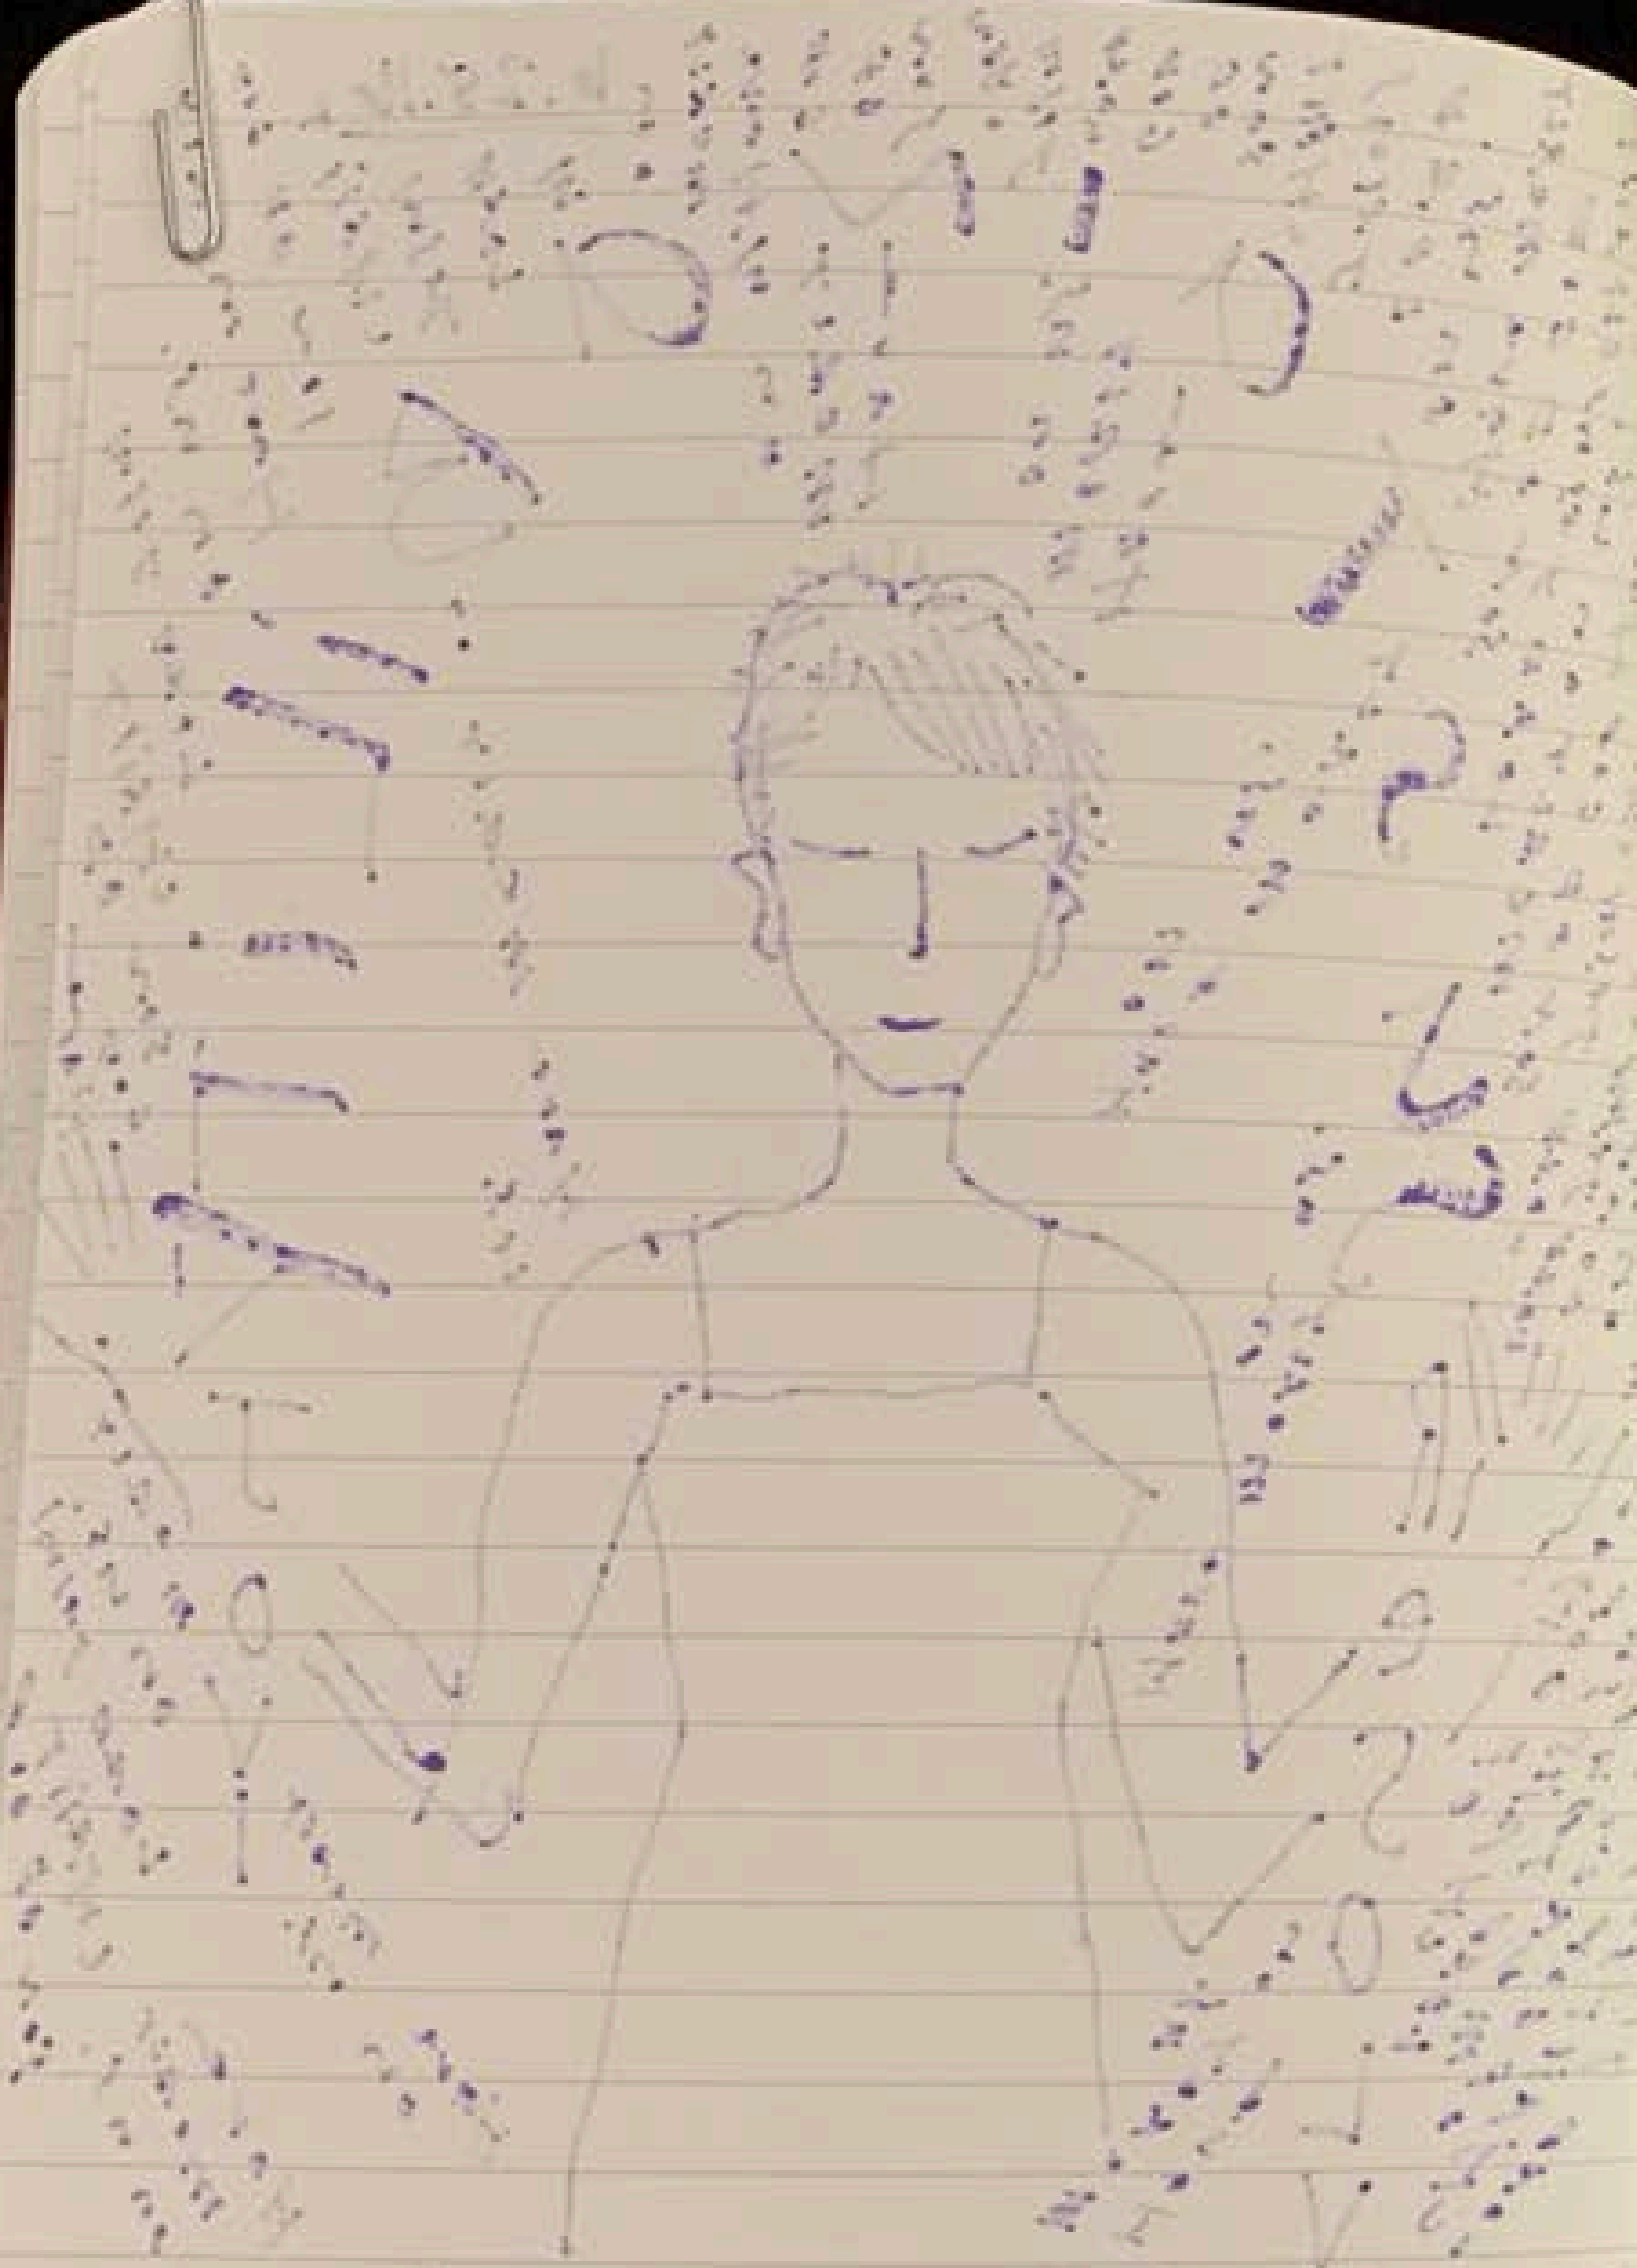

May need to up my doc. visit + go back to acupuncture.

What is his perspective?

make me prickly?

What is the best solution?

I have been unsophisticated in the past. I've acted like a jerk... with the DMN,
with DART... in both cases,
I felt taken advantage
of. In the case of the DMN, they were underpaying women.

DART was just working at the pace they could due to funding.

He said he was "intimidated"
by the presentation at

Find other solutions.

People reveal themselves.

This thing of finding people to work with on the sculpture is time consuming. There has to be another solution
going forward.

BLUE. Blue in honor of Dallas police. Blue in honor of the remotions of the last few days.

12 Police officers shot in downtown Dallas. 5 Die. 4 DFD. 1 DART officer. Need quiet time. A city in mourning. Bereaved.

Grieving. Raw grief. Pure grief.

We had been in Deep Ellum. Diverse Lounge. when we heard of the shooting. Took an hour to get kids back to Oak Cliff. Huge police presence. Horror. Grief. For those killed. For families, the police.

Our city. This nation. This insane nation.

Founded by maniacally
competitive, zealous racists,
myologists, drunks, radicalized
hog violence.

And we idealize it
according to the beautiful
words in the constitution,
the Declaration of Independence,
Bill of Rights.

But THEY were gun +

Our hearts are broken

a communion of grief, let's use this. Let's use this ocean of grief to make a sea
change, to right this ship that has drifted
into a hurricane of blame,
'othering', and raw hatred.

If grief has the power to bring us together, then what do we do — now —
that we have been brought to our knees
on our knees in humility.

Look at each other —
we are convulsed in tears

We are surrounded in this land of ours by
a thick forest of ignorance and fear. We must cut through this forest
if we are to have any chance of making a better world for ourselves

We must be brave

JULY 10, 2016.

In pain today. Literally - my legs are stiff and aching. My heart is broken for this world. For human beings. My thinking changes from "Will we ever learn?" to "We will never learn."

This week in Dallas it was about race. A few weeks ago it was about gays, or abortion, or immigration. Let us use this time.

JULY 10, 2016

Quiet Time

From Khatus (placing a seal)
By Hazrat Inayat Khan

Place a seal

Place a seal on our resolve,

"Raise us above the distinctions and differences which divide us."

We are on our knees.
Take us down to the tap root. Our hearts are in pieces. We partake in a particularly cruel
communion. In violence,
the aftermath
of violence, our van grief is one pure language
not

We haven't risen above - we've been taken below the distinctions + differences that divide us.

This week in our country -
it's about race.
Several weeks ago - gay.
or immigrants -
or ~~women's~~ equity for women
or birth control
or bathrooms.

~~Do~~ Do we need to Our Founding Fathers
wrote beautiful words,
but they were slave owners,
racist, misogynist adulterers,
egotistical, hell bent on personal legacy + reality.
beyond ~~anything~~
What they could only put into words

We are humbled.

Knocked to our knees,
below the distinctions + differences which divide us.

Khatam.

Hazrat Inayat Khan.

"Raise ^{as} above the distinctions + differences which divide us."

At this point, it doesn't matter what the founding Fathers meant by the 2nd Amendment. It is

THIS Sunday, a ^{NOTAR} CRUEL
ON COMMUNION

time to rise + write
our own const. tution.

GRIEVE.

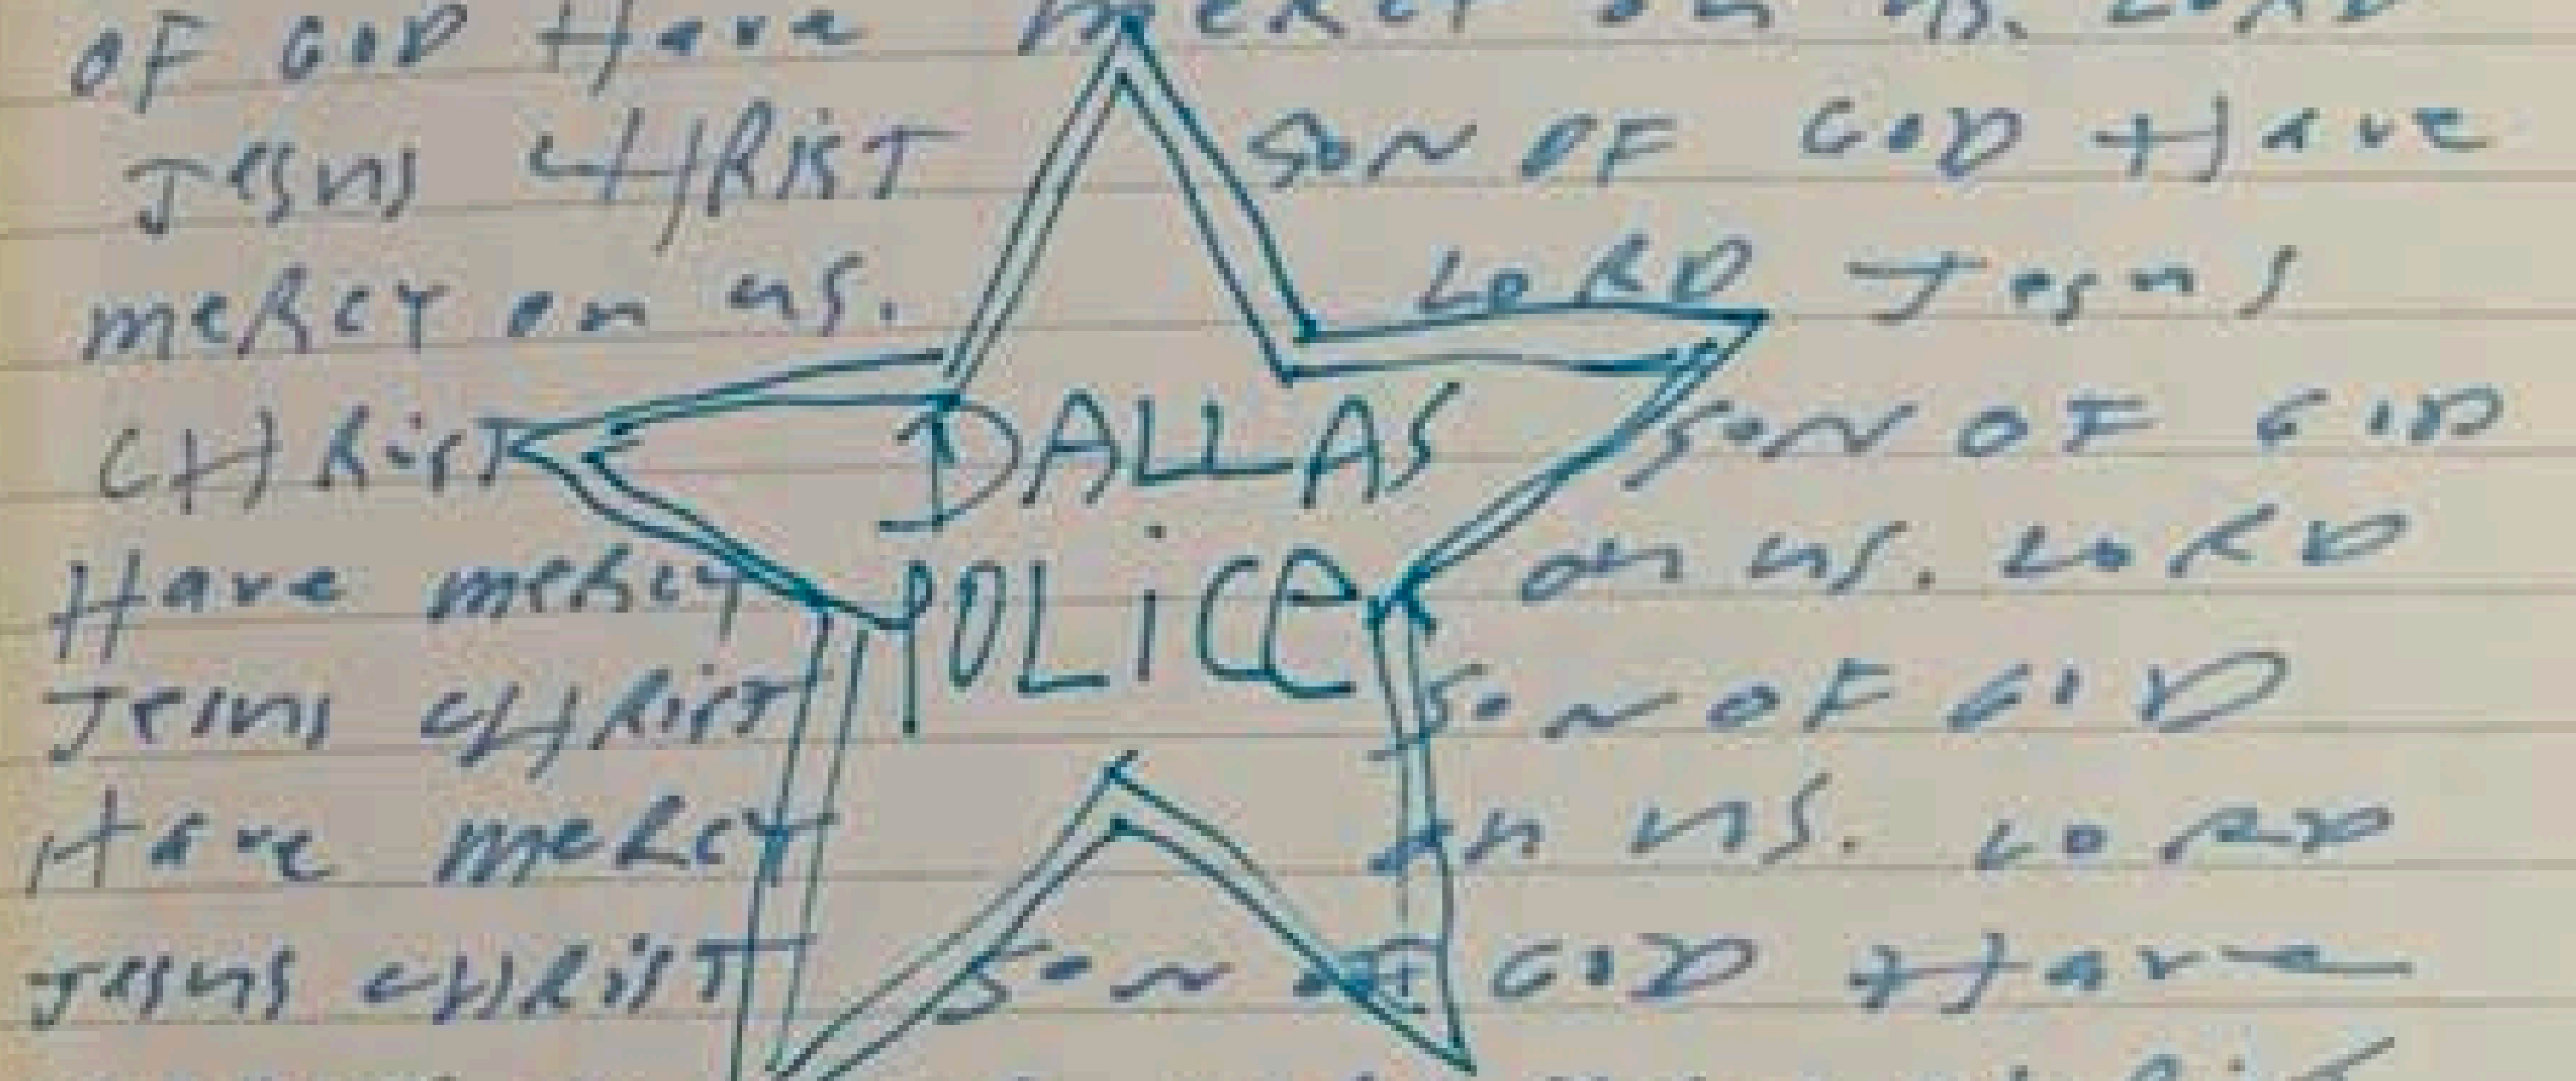

LOOK AROUND.

OPEN OUR HEARTS.

We may not be able to change the whole world,
but we can change
our city.

The shootings of police officers
in Dallas, in Baton Rouge
shootings of black men.

The hatred spewed at Hillary. Too much. Enough.

No great leaders. Great leaders may be impossible
in our twitter/Facebook/
instant culture.

Barack
Obama expresses himself beautifully. Has he been able to be a great leader?

NO. Mike Rawlings may be a great leader. Chief Brown.

Judge Jenkins.

But in the national arena?

Hillary, I fear, is too divisive, too monotonous, too old even. Bernie Sanders - maybe, but too old.

In the 1960's, the great leaders were assassinated.

I pray to you that we do not go backwards to that.

I have been on the verge of tears, or in tears, since Prince died this year...
then shootings in Orlando,
terrorist murders in France,
the police shootings in Dallas,
the Republican convention,
and my annual physical
the same day that Donald Trump speaks. Watching stuff thru My legs hurt.
And I'm only 64. Feeling very discouraged and depressed.

I feel burdened and hopeless regarding 29 pieces. And this sadness in the repetition of it all. Feel defeated,

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the fresh air.
 It felt like a warm blanket after a long flight. The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were chirping happily.
 I took a deep breath and smiled.
 This was my first time in a new country, and I was excited to see what it had to offer.

I had heard that the food was amazing,
 and I was determined to try it all.
 The first thing I ate was a delicious dish that I had never tasted before.
 It was so good that I ate it all.
 I was amazed at how delicious it was.
 I had heard that the people were friendly,
 and I was right.

I had heard that the people were friendly,
 and I was right. They were so kind and helpful. I had heard that the culture was different, and I was right. It was so interesting to see how they lived. I had heard that the language was hard to learn, and I was right. It was so difficult to understand. I had heard that the weather was hot, and I was right.

i would like every one of you to remember this: we are not alone. This is not a world of chance. We are surrounded by creative powers, as surrounded as we are by air and light and gravitation. it is only when we fail to ally ourselves with the forces of light that they are unable to support us. if we give our whole-hearted support, love will triumph. This remembrance brings faith; it brings hope; it brings the certitude of victory.
